

Presentation Skills, Communication strategies and Public Speaking Coaching

Enjoy the benefits of brilliance

COACHING BENEFITS

- Stand up in the boardroom and be confident, clear and compelling.
- Be more influential and persuasive when pitching for business.
- Present ideas or new business effectively to your teams or other departments.
- Develop keynote speeches that get rave reviews.
- Learn the art of storytelling and humor.

MEET DAVE

- Communication skills expert, consultant, engineer, professional speaker, trainer, author and speech Coach
- Dave conveys his ideas with Irish wit, humor and personal stories
- Finalist in the World Championship of Public Speaking
- Award-winning storyteller and humorist

COACHING OVERVIEW

We normally organize our coaching into 1-hour sessions. Although the actual coaching content is customized to your particular needs, here is a sample of the typical areas that may be covered:

- Building confidence and dealing with nerves and common fears
- Developing a more engaging and influential speaking style
- Using the power of non-verbal communication to influence your message
- Creating a powerful and more influential message
- Building stronger rapport with your audiences
- Presenting with greater impact and influence when speaking to management
- Dealing with questions and challenging situations
- Thinking on your feet and developing the ability to be spontaneous when under pressure
- Refining your current presentation technique
- Adapting your style for different types of presentations
- Developing your own personal style for maximum influence

A typical coaching session would follow the following approach:

- Review samples of previous presentations
- Diagnostic review to identify current strengths & development areas
- Cycle of practical exercises to further develop your skills and apply them to your presentation
- Set targets for on-going development
- Receive customized refresher training videos

